

Dear FCC,

I am opposed to petition (RM-10869).

I feel this petition would be the worst thing for the future of amateur radio. Morse code is a thing of the past. Other countries have decided there is no need for it. It should be up to the individual person if he or she wants to use code, not a testing requirement.

Paul Ward